This has been the device of money charlatans in all time. If specie is scarce, there can be no efficient currency for the purposes of business. Albert Gallatin, who was Secretary of the Treasury under both Jefferson and Madison, and in the opinion of Henry Clay knew more of the currency than any other man in the country, devoted treatises to the exposure of this very error. Prompt payment of bank notes is not the sole indispensable guarantee of a sound currency, which cannot be secured "unless the whole currency vary in amount and value exactly as | in honor of John H. That the English manufacturers are in no fear of a cotton famine, as they believe their Government will raise the blockade on the Southries of arbitrary acts on the part of Govern-ment and by connecting some splendid and illusory schemes with the bank, Law succeeded illusory schemes with the bank, Law succeeded in putting in circulation about $420,000,000, or more than twice the amount of the currency then wanted in France. This paper was made a legal tender to the total exclusion of the precious metals. But all the powers of the French government were unequal to the task of sustaining such excess of currency. The price of every species of merchandize naturally rose one hundred per cent. The government, with a view probably to prevent a government, with a view probably to prevent a total catastrophe, reduced, by a decree, the notes to one half of their nominal value. The bubble then burst instantaneously and the whole currency of the country, the four hundred and twenty millions of dollars in bank notes, could not have been sold the next day for the value of the paper on which they were the content of the paper on which they were the content of the paper on which they were the content of the paper on which they were the content of the paper on which they were the content of the paper on which they were the content of the paper on which they were the content of the paper on which they were the content of the paper on which they were the content of the paper on which they were the country that the first time broached, which may perhaps account for the low price of cotton in England as compared with New York. It is evident that the English brokers and manufacturers have no faith in the high prices which now obtain. If they were sure no supply could be got from America this winter, cotton, the London Times admits, would run up to fabulous prices, and not a prund of it would be allowed to leave the country. But the English cotton dealers have no faith in the mark-notes, could not have been sold the next day for the value of the paper on which they were printed. They were subsequently funded at the rate of eighty for one. The public creditors who had been paid in the notes lost one hundred and fifty millions of their capital; some speculators in shares were enriched; all the actual stockholders were ruined; and incalmity extended to all the industrial and productive parts of the community. Law's Bubble, the South Sea scheme, and the assignates of the French Revolution were all based on a fabric of false credit, the substitution of paper money for a metallic currency, in great excess of the value of the latter. If the Confederate States do not take the historic warning from the fate of all these terrible failures, ing from the fate of all these terrible failures, they may find themselves deluged with irredeemable paper and the price of all the necessaries of life increased upon the same inflated keep their cotton with the whole world eager buy it. standard. THE ARMY of the UNITED STATES Radway's Ready Relief.

INFORMATION FOR THE WAR DEPARTMENT.

Testimony of Field Officers Company Officers and entire Regiments in favor of the GREAT PREVENTIVE AND BESTORATIVE.

We propose to offer, in's few brief paragraphs, suc proofs of the efficacy of RADWAY'S READY RELIE as a preventive of and cure for the diseases to which tion of a Paternal Government auxious to protect the health and lives of the tens of thousands of brave and patriotic citizens who have left and are daily leaving their homes, their families, and their business to fight

According to the testimony of eminent military men, f army surgeons of high standing in the professio and thousands of private soldiers. RADWAY'S READY RELIEF has already been of immense benefit to the sick among our gallant volunteer soldiery in CAMP, IN THE BIVOUAC, AND ON THE MARCH. The subjoined summary of facts, which we respectfully invite the Government to verify by application to the parties named, includes but a small portion of the voluminous testimony to the same effect received by us within a few weeks from various headquarters of regiments and detachments in the service of the United States: TESTIMONIAL NO. 1.

From the Ninth Resiment N. Y. Volunteers (Zouaves).
Col. Bush Hawkins, of this regiment (now quartered at Newport News), writes us bestowing the strongest encomiums on the Relier, and recommending it, from the experience of himself and officers, as "a most valuable addition to the army medicine chest."

TESTIMONIAL NO. 2.

Major Linelli, Garibaldi Guard, pronounces the ReLIEF an "excellent medicine" for the army.

TESTIMONIAL NO. 3. Col. George Lyons, of the Eighth Regiment N. Y. S. M., all his officers, and 300 privates, endorse the Relief in the most emphatic terms, and suggest its immediate introduction into the medical stores of every branch of the service. TESTIMONIAL NO. 4.

Surgeon E. K. Seaborn and Colonel Phelps, of the First Regiment of Vermont Volunteers, warmly approve the Relief, and the regiment has taken with it to the field a sufficient supply for present use. TESTIMONIAL NO. 5.

Captain John Whitlock, Co. I California Regiment, tationed at Camp Yates, Staten Island, says that, on he 5th of June, 1861, he administered the Relief to for-ty men of his company who were laboring under severe attacks of diarrhea and dysentery; that its remedial effects were immediate; and that a majority of the sick REPORTED FOR DUTY THE SAME AFTERNOON. He there fore recommends its addition to the medical stores of the regiment as a measure of the "highest importance."

TESTIMONIAL NO. 6.

The military editor of the New York Sunday Atlastestifies, on behalf of members of the Seventy-first, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh, Twelfth, and Sixty-ninth Regiof cases of sun-stroke."

As a protective against and remedy for dysentery, diarrhea, fever and ague, bilious, yellow, and other fevers, and of the effects of miasma, unwholesome water, and excessive heat; as a general invigorant and restore tive; and also as an external application for reducing the inflammation of wounds, the Relief is infallible. When administered internally it instantly arrests pain the Ready Relief will break up and arrest the progress of the disease. A mass of evidence so direct and conclusive as the so earnestly, and who testify from personal experience, can scarcely be disregarded at Washington; and we cannot doubt that the Government, on looking into the acts, will deem it expedient to supply the stationary military hospitals and all regiments in the field with a rotective and remedial preparation of such inapprecia-

THE PRESENT HOUR, THE UNION SENTIMENT

GLIVER LUCAS, Local Editor and Reporter. SOUTHERN KENTUCKY AND THE NEW YORK TIMES-THE PERIL AND GLORY OF KEN-TUCKY .- A Louisville correspondent of the New York Times, not "Pontiac" the regular Louisville correspondent of that paper, with a great show of sorrow and professions of recogaition of the imperative demands of truth, announces that the surrender of Lexington had a disastrous effect in Kentucky in driving thousands to the banner of the rebellion. He dated his letter at Louisville at a time when he could have had no personal acquaintance with the news which he undertakes to give. There is not a word of truth in his statement. No such disastrous result has been seen in any part of Kentucky. We have almost daily interwe supposed to be justice. course with every portion of Kentucky from For Thomas H. Hunt we have alvays felt which news can be obtained, and no such effect has been seen anywhere in the State. WE HAVE AMPLE REASONS FOR KNOWING THAT FROM THE FIRING UPON FORT SUMPTER TO

STRONG AS AT THIS HOUR. In this we speak what we know. The work of enlistment for the war has never been as active in Kentucky as since the surrender at Lexington, and the recruiting of the rebels in this State has never been as feeble as it is now. The correspondent further says that the Home Guards made a great bluster as to what they were going to do, when they got arms, and after being armed have in many instances surrendered their arms without a struggle, and that whole companies of these Home Guards have enlisted under the piratical flag of Buckner. This is untrue. As a general rule the Home Guards have fully redeemed their promises of defending their homes. Some of the best and most cheering fighting in the State and in the encampments at Shepherdsville has been done by the Home Guards, and thou- and at Muldraugh's Hill, the youthful sands of them are ready to repeat these lessons whenever the enemy gives them an opportunity of doing so. The Home Guard at Barboursville and in Carter county have given abundant proof that the blood of the renowned "Hunters of Kentucky" yet flows through the hearts of their descendants. There have been a few instances where the buccaneers in Southern Kentucky have caught some of the Home Guards at a great disadvantage, where resistance would have been madness, but the Home Guards thus robbed did not join the robbers. These Home Guards are biding their time, as the oppressed Unionists in the South are, and a terrible settlement will be made. These misstatements respecting that faithful and loyal body of men, the Home Guards of Kentucky, should not pass unheeded or unrebuked. In the dark hour of Kentucky's struggle they were a shield, a helmet for the Commonwealth, and they should not be robbed of that good name alacrity, but any wholesale impeachment of the courage and fidelity of the body on this account or any other is scandalously unjust. Kentucky has thrown herself into this fight with an earnest resolve not to be defeated even the whole authority of our General Assembly, sent to the gallant and victorious little band. She is doing her part in this great struggle for freedom. Upwards of twenty thousand of her the Southern Confederacy, if we will unrefighting material are now under the stars and stripes, enlisted for the war. And many other thousands will soon be in the same our bridges to be burned, and our locks ranks. Some of our wealthiest and best citizens are preparing to go into the ranks to serve of young men, who a few weeks since were all that pertains to it shall be cast down and a trying to get off to the Confederate gang, are now in the ranks of the National army. We have never, at any time, felt more hopeful of Kentucky than we do at this time. Her whole Union sentiment is aroused, is hard at work, and will make its mark among the signs of the times. There are counties within our knowledge, where but a few weeks ago secesion was vain, boastful, wrathful, and steeped n sin, and now it is scarcely heard of among hose who were lately flaunting it on all occasions, except as a monster to be loathed and where only a few weeks ago secessionism could find many willing helpers, it cannot now find ne. And while these tides are thus running, may we not say to all Kentuckians, to whom to men, by the highest interests of humanity. Throughout the whole history of the Commonthis doctrine, whoever, in any way, attempts o hinder its triumphant and peaceful and legal march, is an enemy to the Commonwealth, her interests to any other form of government than the representative form. Through all the changing political scenes and dynasties of Kentucky this has been the sunlight that guided her, -the pillow of cloud by day, the pillow of

The commercial reports indicate that to permit you, in this day of your trial, to she is too low to be in any danger of falling serve her in the deadly struggle, and be a very far.

We expressed surprise and astonishment he other day that Gen. Albert Sidney Johnton, a Kentuckian, had accepted the appoint nent to lead an invasion of his native State. Our surprise and astonishment are not less learn that Col. Thos. H. Hunt, late of this city, has consented to head a regiment in the avasion. We announced, a short time ago, that Col. Hunt had accepted an appointment ander Gen. Buckner, but subsequently, and cially between Crab Orchard and Mt. Vernon with great pleasure, we stated, upon authority | No teams can then draw a loaded wagon over which we deemed ample, that he had not done the roads. There is no turnpike on the mouno. We had a right to consider our authority for this latter statement ample. Col. Hunt, ensitively anxious to avoid even a suspicion of any connection with the invasion of Kenucky, had written to this city that he had reected several urgent proffers of appointments, and that he would never under any circumstances consent to participate in an invasion of and gladly rendered him in our columns what

But be permitted to winter in Kentucky? in spite of all this and in spite of his earnest and oft-repeated protestations that he could never be prevailed on to take part in the inva-AND CO-OPERATION HAVE NEVER BEEN AS sion of Kentucky, he is taking part in it. We have before us a printed handbill, dated at the Confederate Camp on Green river, calling for ecruits to a company to enter "the 5th Kenucky regiment to be commanded by Colonel Thos. H. Hunt or Colonel B. Hardin Helm, and the latter name is erased with a pen to indicate that Colonel Hunt, with no alternate, s to be the commander, and a pen adds at the bottom of the bill, "Colonel Hunt's regiment will go into camp immediately." He is actually doing what a little while ago he professed to be shocked at the bare thought of loing. The young men, who, as members of the State Guard, were drilled and disciplined and indoctrinated by him here spirits, whom, by his instructions and his fascinations, he succeeded in bringing to the adoption of his own views of our national affairs, he is now leading to a conflict upon his and their native soil, a conflict in which he knows that they must meet cousins and brothers and fathers, to say nothing of life-long friends and neighbors, in the field of blood and carnage. Where and when and how and under what mysterious influences, he contracted the diseased feelings and passions that have prompted him to do this thing, we cannot conceive; but, alas! what horrid changes may not the horned and hoofed devil of secession work in

> A communication appeared on the local page of the Journal of Saturday, intimating that some "prominent lady of Louisville" had several days ago prepared a dinner for Gen. S. B. Buckner in anticipation of his cap-

The communication, which was inserted without the knowledge or authority of the conductors of the Journal and in violation of a rule we have prescribed for our columns, is GREAT BARGAINS probably founded, as we are assured, upon an idle story affoat in certain respectable circles. If so, the statement of the communication, we are authorized to say, is totally incorrect, the lady alluded to having never harbored the thought of entertaining Gen. Buckner on the occasion mentioned or any other.

But whatever the communication may be founded on and to whomsoever it may allude its publication in the Journal was unwarranted in every respect. It is not proper for publication and its publication in the Journal was not merely unauthorized but interdicted by the standing regulations of the paper. Such communications might be in place in the "Whip" or the "Scorpion" or the "Spur" but they are sadly out of place in the Louisville Journal or any other respectable journal. A DESIRABLE ARTICE, for soldiers' use, a may be carried in the vest pocket, consisti an Iudia Rubber tube 18 inches long, having a m esale and retail. H. W. WILKES, JR.

RANA WAY from the subscriber, living near Bardstown, Nelson county, Ky., on the night of the 4th October, 1861, a negro man named NEL-Sion, 80 or 30 years o'd, and of black complexion. He is about 5 feet 9% or 10 inches high, weighs 185 or 17 pounds, has a scar near the widdle and top of his fore head, and the little fineer on his left hand is ecrocked and eta-ds about half shut. He has had two of his jaw teeth extracted. The balance of his teeth are good. Has rather a downcast look. Was raised by Thomas Mattingly, of Nelson county, Ky., and made his escape from Missis-ippi, some two years ago, to New Madrid, Mo., where he denied his owner and changed his name to Jack. I am of opinion would do the same thing ag in if arrested.

Will pay the above reward if taken out of the State of Kentucky or 8100 if take in Kentucky un any county bordering on the Ohio river and delivered to me or $200 REWARD.

or Aentucky or 8100 if taken in Kentucky in any county bordering on the Ohio river and delivered to me or lodged in some jail in Kentucky so that I get him.

Need we repeat that no attention is given to anonymous communications? They are not even To the Editors of the Louisville Journal: read-not a line of them.

The commanding officers of companies an company sergeants would be doing a goo service by giving direct information to the friends and relatives of sick soldiers. The same rule is applicable to those who have met with rule is applicable to those who have met with accidents. If officers will convey such information to us, we shall take unusual pains to make it public, and shall esteem it our duty to provide for the disabled and sick, if possible, beyond the recognition of those who are in the field and with him. Should the enemy be no more than that they could not thresh, and the wheat was growing in the stacks.

From Captain Farris, we learn some particulars from the Desmoines river country. That river was at flood height, and fence-rails, saw-logs, corn-shocks, etc., were shoo ing out of it to the Mississippi, in quantities sufficient to nearly cover the entire surface of the river. Mr. Hare had four huntred hove in a pen in the electron.

We learn that the rebel Buckner entere Brownsville, the county town of Edmundson, or Thursday last, and, by proclamation, ordered that the taxes should be paid to the Southern Confederacy. Mr. Lemonte Brun, the Sheriff, tool his books, papers, vouchers, &c., and sought refuge with Gen. Buckner. He has since then enlisted in Captain McCullough's mounted rangers, and will go back in due time to reestablish his office and secure what he has left behind. Old father Harrod, a worthy minister of the Methodist Church, who has seen two generations of war, has enlisted in the same company and promises to give a good report of himself. All along our lines the men are impetuous for an advance, and before many days the expectation is that they will be gratified. The New Albany Ledger says the census of the children in Floyd county has lately been taken by the township trustees and returned to the School Examiner, Mr. J. V. Kelso. From him we learn that there are between the ages of five and twenty-one years 7.093; of these 3.549 are males and 3,544 females. There are fifty-six public schools in the county. The number of children in attendance during the year is 3,500, about one half of the whole number. The average attend-Bath, Rowan, Greenup, Carter, Boyd, and othance was 1,838 per day. There are employed ers, to assemble near Prestonsburg, organize and forty male and eighteen female teachers. A few days before Buckner attempted his dnight raid upon our city, the family of one of his staff received a message from him, directing them to leave here with all expedition, and proceed towards the South. They left in compliance with the request, but returned a day or two ago, and are again among us. This plainly shows that the Confederate rebels regard Louisville as a place of perfect security, and that they are willing to trust those nearest and dearest to them in the safe-keeping of those against whom they have meditated such hellish designs. To the Editors of the Louisville Journal:

GENTLEMEN: In your paper of Friday evening and Saturday morning, you publish an article headed "An Outrage," wherein it is stated that Dr. Bryan, assisted by some hands at work for him, stopped two boys, and, with pistols pointed at their heads, compelled them to take oaths to support the Southern Confederacy. My father stopped them, seeing that they were drunk, and had some sport with them, but was not assisted by any one, nor had he weapons of any description. And the drunken fellows, Brengman and Shively, returned to the city, took out an arrest, placed Mr. Meriwether at the head of 15 or 20 men, who, armed with their shotguns, came out and made the arrest and took my father to the Custom-house, where Brengman appearing was sworn to give in his testimony, which amounted in sum and substance to the fact that he was too drunk in the road to know what did take place. Billy Wilson's Zouaves on Santa Rosa Island, on the 5th inst. Detachments from several Mississippi, Louisiana, and Alabama regiments made a stand in the night and drove in Wilson's pickets. Shortly afterwards a fierce fight began. The Zouaves of Col. Wilson are credited with baving fought with great bravery, and the rebels admit a loss of about forty killed and eighty wounded. The rebels claim to have spiked the guns of the Zouaves and destroyed all their camp equipage. They also claim to have their camp equipage. They also claim to have committed great slaughter among the Zouaves, but give no number of the killed. The rebels also say that they carried off a number of prisoners.

This system of wholesale murder and plunder has been, and still is, encouraged by men high in civil power—by men who live among us, and who are residents of this town—whose influence and wealth have been used to the fullest extent, to inaugurate a system of warfare such as demons would blusk to engage in.

FIFTY SIX MILES OF LOGS ON THE SUSQUEHAN-FAH RIVER -Accounts continue to be received of great damage done at the East by freshets, last week, and the Harrisburg (Pa.) Telegraph says that by the destruction of booms at Wil-Hamsport and Lock Haven, on the west branch of the Su quehannah river, at least one million dollars' worth of logs were swept away and lost. The Telegroph says:

The firsting logs reached this city about ten minutes before 12 o'clock yesterday morning, and presented a seene of the most thrilling description. The wind came with considerable force from the west, which had the effect to drift most of them to the channel east of Foster's Island, and them to the channel east of Foster's Island, and for the first two or three hours so profuse was their number that they appeared to cover almost the entire surface of the water between the islands and this shore. The effect was the same also as far as the eye could penetrate up and down the river—nothing but logs packed close together, as if they composed one immense moving raft. The logs were sill floating past the city up to nine o'clock last night, though much scattered, and in less numbers. Of course it is impossible for us to estimate the number of logs in this immense for tilla—we can only measure them by the mile; and accordingly estimate the swiftness of the current assumed at seven miles an hour, from the time they first appeared here up to nine o'clock time they first appeared here up to nine o'clock last night, that the line of logs extended a distance of fifty-six miles below this city, with an average breadth of 100 yards.

BULL RUN OUIDONE. - The following account of a panic among disciplined troops, causing their surrender as prisoners to half their number, has a special interest at this time. It is taken from Voltaire's History of Charles XII of Sweden: While Charles XII was driving the Muscovites before him into the heart of Lithuania, Schulen-burg at last repassed the Oder, and came at the head of twenty thousand men to give battle to the Graud Marshal, Riehuskiold, who was reck oned the best general that Charles had, and led a force of about ten thousand men. In Schulenarg's army was a body of six or seven thousand uscovites, who had long been disciplined, and were esteemed good soldiers. The rest were Saxburg, who, with four-and twenty thousand men, had in some measure is filed the good fortune of the King of Sweden, sunk under that of Eichusshiold The combat did not last a quarter of an bour. The Saxons made no resistance, and the Riuscovites threw down their arms the moment they saw the Swedes. The name was a sudden and the confusion so great, that the conquerors found on the field of battle seven thousand loaded nuckets, which the enemy had thrown away without firing. No defeat was ever more sudden, c mplate, or more disgraceful; and yet no ral ever made a finer disposition of his troops Schulenburg, even by the confession of the and Swedish Generals themselves, who day saw how little human prudence is able to mand human events.

In the spirit of Spartan fortitude we are willing that our trops should be sacrificed, if need be, in the cause of the country. But that they should fall victims to the mismangement of an inefficient business to depose and reform, but it is our duty to xpose that inefficiency which is disastrous to the public welfare. To the Editors of the Louisville Journal: PITT'S POINT, KY., Oct. 11, 1861. GENTLEMEN: Much has been said about banner counties, States, &c., in raising troops for the army, but I think our town with old Bullitt will claim the borns. At the June election we had forty voters in town; since then we have sent twenty-three soldiers to the United Stated army, twenty-three soldiers to the United Stated army, and two only to Jeff Davis. We are organizing a company of Home Guards with the assistance of the neighborhood, to be composed of the old men, as all our young men have left us. This company, "The Old Greys," will be ready to go where duty calls them, for we are for the whole Union or none. Yours, &c., A. S. SHIVELY.

The ferry here does a good business, being at the mouth of Rolling Fork. The saw-mill and the large fiouring-mill heve each a boat for their own use, besides skiffs, &c. It would ruin us to be deprived of our boats. We keep regular guard over them so that nothing coutraband has ever crossed or can cross. You would much oblige your friends here if you could speak a good word for us to Gen. Sherman.

The corn is fast ripening, and roasting-ears are only procurable from corn planted for the purpose. Potatoes will be plenty and cheap. A Singular Point of Law .- An odd question has A Singular Point of Law.—An odd question has come up in Valparaiso as to the sale of indulgences to eat meat on Friday. The sale of these valuable documents produces about fifty thousand dollars per annum, which is devoted by the Government to religious purposes. The sale is underderstood to be based on an order from the Pope given in 1850, to run for ten years, which, however, is claimed by the church authorities in Valparaiso to have begun to run only in 1852. The Government, however, is said to think otherwise, and in this embarrassing conflict the Council of State has laid the subject before the Attorne General for his opinion.

33 dti MADAME ISABEL SNELL,

DOCTRESS & ASTROLOGIST, Eighth st., second door from Grayson, WOULD respectfully inform the citizens of Louisville that she is able to tell any hing they have in their mind, and can help people out of their trouble, no matter what it is. She was born with a secret that enables her to surpass any one else in TELLING FORTUNES. She can also find out through her secret all circumstances of sickness, and can tell what will cure, as there are roots growing for every disease in the world. world.

Madame I S. is the only one that can make DR.

HUFLAND'S LIFE ESSENCE pure. This mixture s good for all diseases, and can only be bought in her office. No. 509 Eighth street, second door from Grayson.

Every person that is deplessed and troubled about War should call on her, as she is the only one that inherited the secret from La Norma, the great Fortunefeller that assisted Napeleon of France in all his underakines, and made him successful in all his battles, she wagers $1,000 that no one can surpass her.

Please call and see her, and von will be relieved.
